WALTER J. DRYSDALE, Proprietor Made Money From Dandellons,

Collecting dandelions an Italian voman living in Philadelphia has been able to save $2,000 during the last 40 years. It appears that about forty years ago the woman's husband died, leaving his widow unprovided for. She started to collect dandelions, and sold them to her countrymen in the city. A few days ago she died, and it was found that her savings had accumulated to a little more than $2,000.

Homing Instinct Supreme. Science cannot explain the wonderful instinct which brings the pigeon to its home, but it is stronger than fear or any other obstacle. Liberated in the face of the heavlest barrage, it circles in the air to get its bearings, rises swiftly to a height of half a wile then is off with the speed of bullet. For a distance of 30 miles they are capable of making two miles a minute, and have flown 800 miles

Use of Oxalic Acid. In using oxalic acid to remove any ink stains always follow with a few drops of javelle water, which counteracts and neutralizes the oxalic acid. Then rinse with boiling water to remove both of these chemicals so that the fiber will remain untouched.

In Primitive New England.

In the early days of New England history when there were no stoves in the churches, and women took hot potatoes in their muffs, men sometimes brought their dogs to church to serve as foot-warmers. For this privilege a charge was made of six-pence a dog.
